

The Steam Room

Steam rooms are one of the most effective and relaxing thermal areas within a spa. The volume of steam, the lighting and the essence in the air make this a very special experience for the guest. These rooms must be designed carefully as water, steam, ventilation, heating and lighting play a vital role.